

About Us:

Viking filtration is a company specialized in water treatment for the Pulp and Paper industry with more than 40 years' experience from the business. We have focused on tailor made innovative process solutions provide equipment of highest quality that generates energy and cost savings for our customers. Our strength is the knowledge of Pulp & Paper processes and experience from the installation of more than 400 Micro filters worldwide.

Our mission:

Our mission is to strive to be the best in the industry at understanding our customers' needs and provide the best solution for your process.

The team consists of

Bård Are Hultengren / Sales Manager and CEO

21 years' experience within Filtration and Paper industry

Svein Fjeldbraaten / Senior Process Specialist

41 years' experience within Filtration, Pulp and Paper industry

Paul Knutsen / Technical Manager

32 years' experience within Filtration, Pulp and Paper industry

Tomas Paulauskis / Service Manager

18 years' experience within Mechanical Engineering and Service

Anders Brinkman / Service Technician

12 years within Mechanical Engineering and Service